PUBLIC SESSION

Mr. Chester F. Dubiel, 7010 Arcadia Drive – Concerned about the traffic on Arcadia Drive and the parking situation. About 1-1/2 years ago, the City put up “No Parking” signs on Arcadia Drive. This was due to a dog being killed by a car on Ames Road. Ames Road and Arcadia Drive come together at 7000 Arcadia Drive. This is an inconvenience to many people that live on Arcadia Drive. Stated, every year he has an annual reunion at his house with 35-45 people attending. Stated that he asked for permission to park on Arcadia for this reunion and was denied. Stated, he cannot see why he couldn't get parking for this event when the City closes streets down for block parties, athletic events, etc. Asked why they can't have Police cars on Royal Ridge to catch speeders in that area. Also, wants the “No Parking” signs taken down and the stop sign put back up.

Mr. Richard Higgins, 11825 West Pleasant Valley – Stated, he wants to know if the City has a plan in action if something happens with the Chevy Plant within the next year because that is a big hit. His other concern is with the speeding down Pleasant Valley through the school zone. Stated he saw a Police car by the intersection of Broadview and Pleasant Valley looking for speeders, but the speeders are flying through the school zone.

Mr. Martin Drabek, 7696 Cecilia Drive – Stated about the semi tractors that park in yards. Stated there was one parked in the front yard all day on Sunday. Asked for the Ordinance and stated he would personally deliver it.

Mrs. Deborah Tobasso, 7714 Southington Drive – Stated she is a school guard for St. Charles on Ridge Road. Stated she is asking Council to reconsider their decision for removing the traffic lights on Ridge Road. There have been two accidents during school at lights that are stopped. She is concerned with people going across Ridge Road. She has seen countless people waiting, elderly people that are nervous, and near misses all the time. Stated, she feels this is a big safety issue.

Mayor DePiero – Stated the Safety Director will speak with Mrs. Tobasso tomorrow. With regard to the speeding, stated he personally knows there has been a lot of enforcement of Pleasant Valley Road with motorcycle crews. We will keep that on Special Attention. With regard to the Arcadia situation, he will have to familiarize himself with that issue a little more. Certainly the GM issue is one that concerns all of us, and they are in the process of making contingency plans if there is a Plant closure.

Mr. Germana – Stated we have a request for Executive Session for contract negotiations, transfer of City land, and the sale of City land (Schaaf). A “yes” vote is to go into Executive Session, and a “no” vote is to not go into Executive Session.

Yes: Celebrezze, Day, Galinas, Jech, Napoli, Ramser, Regas, Tuma, Brennan.

No: None; Executive Session will now begin.

Mr. Germana – Stated, the Council Meeting will now reconvene at 9:05 p.m.
